A comprehensive guide to varieties & flavours

OZ CLARKE & MARGARET RAND

Grapes & Wines

This is the definitive guide to the world's great wine grapes and the wines they make. Completely revised, this new edition features:

- detailed descriptions of over 200 varieties in an easy-to-use A-Z format, including the top classic grapes such as Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay.
- Hundreds of recommended producers and good wines to try
- European appellation decoder – a guide to the grapes behind the wines
- Over 550 photographs, maps,

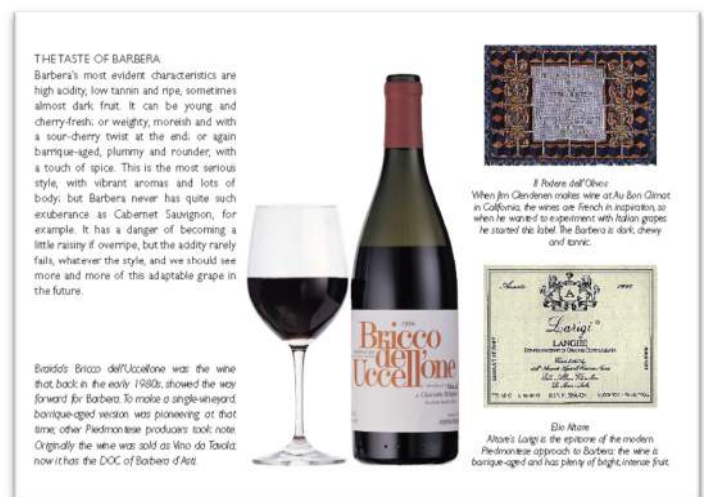

artworks, wine labels and maturity charts

From Abouriou to Zweigelt, this is the essential reference for both the connoisseur and the novice.

Oz Clarke is one of the world's leading wine experts and is known for his phenomenal palate, irreverent style, accurate predictions and enthusiasm for life in general and wine, in particular. He has won all of the major wine-writing awards both in the UK and the USA, including the Glenfiddich, André Simon, the Wine Guild, and most recently the Louis Roederer award. In 2015 he was awarded a Lifetime Achievement Award by Off Licence News in recognition of his diverse career as TV presenter, columnist and author.

Margaret Rand is an award-winning wine writer and writes and tastes for Decanter, World of Fine Wine, harpers and other leading wine and food journals, and judges at international wine shows.
